MANY FIRES—Many fires may be lighted at very low cost this week. 2400 big parol matches for 15c at the big store of bargains. Price this week only.

HAY CROP HARVEST—The crop of alfalfa promises to be larger this season than for some years and of course ranchers will need pitch forks and handles and rope and stack covers. Davidson's Cash Store is a good place to go for these goods.

HOW TO KEEP THE LAWN BEAUTIFUL—First buy 50 feet of fresh Goodrich hose, keep the lawn well sprinkled and then buy a Thomas Lawn Mower, to keep it well trimmed and go to Davidson's Cash Store for these necessities.

OF INTEREST TO IRRIGATORS—Those who have irrigating to do need shovels and canvas. Shovels may be secured at from 70c to $1.25 and canvas may be purchased at reasonable prices at Davidson's Cash Store.

RECIPE FOR THE HOUSEWIFE—For comfort and saving of work—First corner hubby and persuade him to buy you a summer stove. Tell him to come with you to Davidson's Cash Store and help you to decide whether you will buy an Insurance Gasoline stove or a Standard Wickless Blue Flame Oil stove. Hubby may say, My dear, I'm afraid one of those corner founded stoves might blow you up and gasoline is expensive. Just tell him that the stoves at Davidson's are absolutely safe and cost about the same as the hot wood cook stove for fuel. A woman can usually get what she wants if she strikes the lord of the manor right.

So girls keep agitating until you are cooking on a summer stove that is cool, clean and convenient and that was sold by Davidson's Cash Store, the money saver to cash purchasers.

PARENTS and CHILDREN

Often suffer from the same or similar eye defects. Parents who find relief and comfort wearing glasses, often refuse this aid to their children, because they "hate to see children wear glasses." Could anything be more foolish? Many times proper care at the first sign of trouble will prevent a lifetime of suffering and regret.

Don't neglect your children's eyes too long. Remember they may suffer the same tortures you did. The only help for defective eyes is Right Glasses. We fit them.

UNION REVIVAL SERVICES—The Union revival services at the Central M. E. church south were well attended last night and a deep interest was manifested. Services will be held tonight beginning at half past seven o'clock.

RESTORATION TO HEALTH—E. G. Crow was yesterday dismissed from the Sisters' hospital. It was feared that he would be taken out of that institution by an undertaker for he had one of the worst cases of appendicitis on record. It had run along for so long a time that it was feared that an operation would not save the patient. But one was performed by Dr. Duffield and now Mr. Crow is in better shape than ever. Whatever else may befall him in this life he is immune against appendicitis. Mr. Crow is grateful not only to the surgeon, but also to the management of the hospital for the treatment he received there.

A SUIT FOR DAMAGES—Suit for damages was begun in district court yesterday by Arthur R. Taylor against Lincoln Fowler. The complaint states that the plaintiff is the owner of a tract of seventeen acres of land west of the city adjoining on the south a tract of 137 acres owned by the defendant. The land of the plaintiff was on March 8 of this year planted to wheat, barley and melons and he had every prospect of a good and profitable crop. The prospect it is alleged was suddenly changed. The defendant had a ditch on his land and he permitted the water to run through it over sloping ground upon the land of the plaintiff with the result that his crops were drowned out. His loss is fixed at $500. This suit is similar to one that Sam F. Webb and other residents north of the city some time ago thought of bringing against John G. Harden for neglecting to take care of the flood waters of Cave Creek. So much doubt however was raised regarding the responsibility of Mr. Harden for the rampageousness of Cave Creek that the proposed litigation was abandoned.

AN IMPORTUNATE BEGGAR—George Rivers, a colored beggar was before Justice Burnett yesterday on a charge of making a nuisance of himself. Rivers has had the misfortune to lose both legs above the knee. He represented that this happened to him at San Juan hill when he and other members of the Tenth U. S. cavalry saved the Rough Riders from destruction, but for him and the other members of that splendid organization Rivers claims there would never have been a President Roosevelt. Rivers is a most insistent beggar but that was over looked. Yesterday however he got drunk and in order to further attract the attention of passers by to his crippled condition he thrust his crutch in front of them nearly tripping men and women. When he was brought into court he admitted the correctness of the charge against him but said that if the court would be easy on him he would leave the town last night. Frank Gilmes, a frequenter of the county and city jails was also up. "Joe" had been heard of for some time and there was a growing hope that he had reformed or died. He too begged for leniency, saying that he had been employed at Tribolet's slaughter house and had not come to town for two months; if the court would let him go it would be two months before he would appear again. He was taken at his word. F. Crespo and Jose Mejia each got seven days for drunkenness and disturbance of the peace incited thereto by several bottles of dago red. Juan Valenzuela similarly charged was also sent up for seven days.

AN APPEAL TO CONGRESS

So Decided by Citizens' Committee in Crusade Against Gambling.

Another meeting of the citizens' committee for the suppression of gambling was held at O'Neill hall last night. There was a full attendance of the committee and several spectators were present. The meeting had been looked forward to with considerable interest for the reason that a special committee expected to report some plan of action. A variety of plans were offered and after a somewhat tumultuous debate it was resolved to apply to congress for help.

One of the recommendations of the committee was the circulation of a petition to the council for the suppression of gambling the petition to be signed by more than half the voters of the city. Another recommendation favored the appointment of a committee to wait upon the council and request that the matter be submitted to a vote of the people of Phoenix. This was amended by Mr. Cooper in a provision confining the vote at such an election to the taxpayers.

Opposition to all these suggestions was offered. It was contended the securing of a petition would be impracticable and that in any event the council would take no favorable action on it. Thomas Armstrong, Jr., spoke against the election. He said it would come at a time of the year when the voters who were to be relied upon as opponents to gambling would be out of the city. Mr. Armstrong said that he was strongly in favor of the absolute suppression of gambling but he did not believe it could be secured now. He thought though that the council would grant some measure of relief from the wide openness of gambling and the saloon business as well.

W. E. Cleary was for the petition. He thought one should be circulated in town and another in the country, the latter in the way of pressure upon business men who might not otherwise be disposed to sign the town petition.

In the opinion of Eugene Brady O'Neill local effort would be thrown away. It would be impossible to carry an election against gambling and it would be equally impossible to secure an effective petition to the council. But a petition to congress would furnish a sure and quick relief. He therefore moved that all propositions which had been submitted be laid on the table and that it be ordered that a petition be circulated throughout the territory urging congress to suppress gambling in Arizona.

This was opposed by Mr. Cleary on the ground that it would be a public confession of the immorality of the territory, an admission that Arizona was unfitted for statehood and unfitted even for jointure with New Mexico. This view however was not held by a majority of the committee for when Mr. O'Neill's motion was finally got before the house it was carried with little opposition.
